

PERC

PERC is a non-profit equestrian club incorporated in December of 1985.

Website: peridingclub.com

PURPOSE

- To promote equestrian activities and educational opportunities for its members and the community
- To provide a meeting place for horse people
- To develop and maintain trails
- To promote activities around horses

WHY?

- To preserve trail riding in the midst of growth
- Most of all, for the fun and enjoyment of horses and trail riding

HOW?

- By working with the federal, state, county and town governments, as well as private entities; to identify and create trail corridors; to encourage the granting of easements and right-of-way for the purpose of horseback riding and other compatible, non-motorized recreation
- Organizing trail rides from April through October

WHO?

- Membership in PERC can be either as an Individual or as a Family. A Family Membership consists of 1 or 2 adults and their children under age 21 residing at home.

WHERE?

- Meetings are held the first Wednesday of each month (except January, July and December) at 7:30 p.m. at the Colorado Horse Park Equestrian Center Lounge, Parker, Colorado.
